

Demonstrations and activities will delight young and old, making this an art celebration for the entire family. The tour is educational and will broaden public understanding of the arts. You'll be able to see artwork take shape before your eyes and talk with the artist. At some studios, you'll be able to take part in the creation. This is a unique opportunity to meet artists doing what they love and to purchase art from its source. Collectors will relish the selection of new work available especially for this occasion. The artists' gardens are beautiful during the tour. Please take time to enjoy them and smell the flowers.

The Studio Tour organization established an art scholarship in 2005. Individual studios have more information and events planned to benefit this fund, which provides local students with scholarships to further their art education.

Many studios are open daily, year-round. Look for the  symbol in the participating artists listing.
